1. God's grace may anger some

2. God comforts and discomforts

3. God's pity is extended to the most unworthy

5. How can you leave your comfort zones to extend mercy to those who need it?

Questions for Application

Take some time to go through these questions with your life group, close friend, around the dinner table, or in your morning devotions.

1. What are the different ways that God instructs/guides Jonah in chapter 4?

2. What three questions does God ask Jonah in this chapter, and how are those significant?

3. How has God's mercy transformed your heart?

4. What can we learn about Jonah's desire for comfort here? Can you think of someone in Scripture who was willing to be discomforted (afflicted) to bring true comfort to those facing judgment?
