1. Since we become like what we worship, then what we worship is of utmost importance (Psalm 115:4-8; 2 Kings 17:15)

2. As broken images we need radical surrender for transformation (Mark 12:14-17; Col 1:15)

3. Beholding God's surpassing glory transforms us (2 Cor 3:15-18; Heb 1:3)

4. Life becomes a pursuit of discovering God's surpassing glory

Questions for reflection and application

Take some time to go through these questions with your life group, close friend, around the dinner table, or in your morning devotions.

1. Can you think of an example from your life where you have become more like the object of your worship, whether in worshiping what is false or in worshiping God as he is?

2. If we want change in our lives it requires surrender. What are some of the reasons we find it difficult to surrender control of our lives to God?

3. What aspects of God's glorious character help us surrender control of our lives to God?

4. Read Romans 8:32. How does this verse help us trust God instead of yourself?
