1. The World's Joy Will Run Dry

2. Religion's Joy Will Run Dry

3. Jesus' Joy Is Inexhaustible

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. What things in life bring you the most joy? What is it about these things that bring joy?

2. What things have the power to kill your joy in your life (ie. poor health, stress, loss)?

3. Read Matthew 25:14-30. Where specifically is joy found in this passage (See verses 21 & 23)?

4. Read Galatians 5:22-23 and 1 John 4:8. What do you observe about love in these two passages?

5. God doesn't just have attributes, God is his attributes. God doesn't just have love, he is love. God doesn't just have joy, he is joy. Does that change the way you view joy?

6. Read John 15:11 and John 17:13. What do we see about the joy that Jesus brings?

7. Can you be sorrowful and still have joy? See 2 Corinthians 6:10.

8. Instead of just praying for more joy, have you ever thought of praying for more of Jesus in your life? Spend some time praying for that now.
