

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians - The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.

Ephesians – The Gospel Unites

Walking in the Spirit

Ephesians 5:15-18

Pastor Matt Kottman

December 31, 2023

1. Using Our Time (5:15-16)

2. Living On Purpose (5:17)

3. Being Filled with the Spirit (5:18)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. Read Eph 5:15-16. Where have you found that you have not made the best use of your time? What draws you to those things that squander your time?
2. How might seeking the Spirit for wisdom (Eph 1:17; 5:15-16) help you with your time usage?
3. Do you find that you are constantly busy, finding it difficult to give adequate time to the weightier things of life? If so, what can you cut out of your schedule to allow space for the weightier things?
4. Read Eph 5:17. What does the wise person seek to know?
5. How can a person know the will of God? See Eph 1:17; Rom 12:1-2.
6. What does the Scripture teach us about God's will? See Matt 6:33; 1 Thess 4:3; 5:18, 23; 1 Pet 2:5.
7. What areas of your life are being revealed to you right now that you need to grow in wisdom to know the will of the Lord?
8. Read Eph 5:18. The command is a passive command "be filled" and not an active command "go fill yourself." Why does this matter?
9. If being filled with the Holy Spirit is the work of God, how do we position ourselves for this? See Eph 5:18-21.