1. Serving the Master by Serving Masters (6:5-8)

2. Serving the Master by Honoring Servants (6:9)

3. Living Today in View of the Great Day (6:8)

Questions for Reflection and Application

1. How did this message challenge your view of those in authority over you or those under your authority?
2. Read Ephesians 6:8. This was the key verse in this passage. How are you living today in view of that great day?
3. What did you see about the heart of the Father toward you from this sermon? How does this truth help cultivate a heart for God in you?
4. Richard Baxter (a pastor from the 1600s) wrote, “Our rest is our heaven; where we take our rest, there we make our heaven.” Where have you looked to this world to be your true rest and thus your true heaven? How does this heaven fall short of the saints’ everlasting rest?
5. What are some ways to cultivate an eternal mindset in your heart? Here are some passages to consider in your answer:
1 Cor 13:8-13; 15:50-58      Phil 1:20-26
2 Cor 4:16-18      Tit 2:11-14
Gal 6:9-10      1 Jn 3:1-3
Eph 6:8      Rev 22:12-21
6. Write one of the above passages down and spend some time each day this next week meditating on it. Which passage will you choose? Do you think this will help you grow in your heavenly mindset? Why or why not?
7. Ask one another for prayer about how you can grow in your eternal hope.
