The purpose of the evangelism core class is threefold: to provide the incentive for evangelism (the why), instruction in evangelism (the how), and initiation of evangelism (the when). This is not a regimented “program” but an organic activity that flows from the training. We will cover the best practices, provide mentoring, role playing, opportunities for real life witnessing experiences, and ongoing support for relational evangelism. The outcome of this class is that you will be able to more confidently engage with unbelievers in presenting the gospel. Taking this class may change someone else's life ... for eternity!
