Marriage is something we all think we understand, through our own story, our parents' marriage, or even what we see on TV. But God invites us to see marriage through His eyes, not just our instincts. In this class, we'll slow down and let Scripture reshape how we think about marriage, so that we can see its beauty as God designed it.

This class isn't just for couples, it's for everyone! If you're single, we'll talk about how God's design can shape the way you pray for others, think about dating, or prepare for a future marriage. If you're engaged or married, it's an opportunity to step back and let God refine your purposes, hopes, and expectations.

Our hope is that together we'll discover how God designed marriage, not just for our good but to reveal the love of Christ to the world!
